State Read Work to Begin Monday-New Semaphore at Station-Organ Recital-Supplies Forwarded to the Flood Sufferers-Death of Harley

Work on the new state road through Reynolds street and over Sterns hill is to commence Monday. First Selectman Hiram S. Franklin said Friday that he had received instructions from the state highway department to begin the work when ready.

Reynolds street proper will not be torn up for some time to come, however, as the work will begin at the eastern extremity of the proposed road. Such sections to be improved as are dried out will receive first attention. The indications are that, with the early Generous Response to Efforts for New The spirit of remarkable response that is at high tide brought the new Congregational church house fund up to $13,091.55 at the enthusiastic meeting of the campaign teams Friday evening.
